[Shri J.S. Raju] by him was not found acceptable. Under these circumstances, how did the Government of Tamil Nadu give the permission for the project? It is alleged that a huge amount has changed hands. What we see is only the tip of the iceberg. There are more skeletons in the cupboard of the Tamil Nandu Government*.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): Mr. Raju, you should not make unsubstantiated charges. You cannot make unsubstantiated charges.

SHRI J. S. RAJU: I can make against the Tamil Nadu Government.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): I will go through the record. If your comments are not warranted, I will remove them from the record.

SHRI J. S. RAJU: I can make them against the Tamil Nadu Government.

Therefore, I demand that a Commission headed by a sitting Supreme Court Judge should be set up to go into the details as to how this project has gone to the S.T Power System and also to find out the reasons for the haste and the extraordinary interest shown by the Government of Tamil Nadu in allowing the project.

Thank you, Sir.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): Now I adjourn the House for lunch till 2.30 P.M.

The House adjourned for launch at thirty-six minutes past one of the clock.

The House re-assembled after lunch at thirty minutes past two of the clock. The Vice-Chairman Shri V. Narayanasamy in the Chair.

SHRI DINESHBHAI TRIVEDI (Gujarat): Sir, we are disappointed by the Railway Budget .....
